

EIGHTY EIGHTH DISTRICT.

Cameron county.—Frank William Latham, of Brownsville, was born in Groton, New London county, Connecticut, in 1818; served in the army during the Mexican War, and on his return from that service, in 1848, settled in Brownsville, where he has ever since resided; has been county clerk of Cameron county, and was twice elected to the House from his district previous to the late war; elected to the House, November 7, 1882, without opposition, receiving all the votes cast.